  - a. opportunities offered in all FNMI languages
  - b. opportunities offered in several FNMI languages (languages are listed alphabetically)
  - c. opportunities offered in individual FNMI languages
3. French
4. International languages
  - a. opportunities offered in all international languages
  - b. opportunities offered in several international languages (languages are listed alphabetically)
  - c. opportunities offered in individual international languages

Note:

1. Note that in the above four language categories, the following types of opportunities appear, when applicable, in the Type of Opportunity column.
  - Study/Course
  - Exchanges: Language, Culture and Immersion Experiences
  - Award: e.g., Scholarships, BursariesWithin each category, the opportunities will be listed by: study/course, exchanges, award/bursary/scholarship
2. For new opportunities, the word 'NEW' will appear in the Type of Opportunity column.
3. A few basic definitions:

Award: An award is given in recognition of outstanding achievement. Awards may be in the form of books, plaques, subscriptions and/or money. A monetary award is usually called a scholarship or bursary.

Bursary: A nonrepayable grant of money. Bursaries are awarded primarily based on financial need, but academic achievement also is considered. Usually, the applicant must provide detailed documentation describing his or her financial situation when applying for the bursary.

Scholarship: A nonrepayable sum of money awarded to a student to help finance further education. Most scholarships are based on merit in areas ranging from academic achievement to athletics. Usually, scholarships are not based on financial need.
